

Maryland Training Requirement Reminder

TO: Corporate Markets Producers Licensed in Maryland
RE: Maryland Anti-Fraud Training Requirement Reminder
DATE: September 16, 2022
EFFECTIVE: September 1, 2022

Maryland law (COMAR 31.04.15.05) requires insurers to offer training in the recognition and referral of suspicious claims to independent producers who have appointments with a carrier.

Maryland independent producer anti-fraud training must meet the following requirements:

- Address specific aspects of fraud associated with Midland National's product lines;
- Be at least two hours in duration, and
- Be updated and reviewed every two years.

This training is optional.

You may be receiving this training elsewhere, but to inquire about receiving training related to the recognition and referral of suspicious claims, or to report suspected fraud, please email Midland National's Special Investigations Unit (SIU) at SIU@sfgmembers.com.

For questions about this bulletin, please contact Sherry Olson (solson@sfgmembers.com or 701-433-6223).
